SCOTT JACKSON TRIAL

Pearl Bryan's Alleged Slayer Will Soon Know His Fate.

A JURY HAS BEEN SECURED.

Two Witnesses Examined, the Boy That Found the Body and the Coroner—The Latter's Testimony Very Damaging to the Accused—Pearl Bryan Was Killed Where Her Body Was Found.

CINCINNATI, April 22.—The trial of Scott Jackson for the murder of Pearl Bryan was begun in the Campbell county circuit court in Newport, Ky., yesterday. Much more was accomplished at the first day's session than had been hoped by those who have watched the proceedings up to date. The jury was secured at 2 o'clock after examining less than 50 of the 100 men subpoenaed. They are as follows: Murty Shea, William White, L. Sharstein, F. B. Maister, John M. Enslyer, John Boehmer, William Motts, Millard Carr, George P. Stegner, John T. Backsman, Fred Giskemeyer and Jacob Kraut.

The witnesses were taken from the room, and Attorney Lockhart read the indictment amid intense silence. It charges Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling with killing Pearl Bryan by cutting her head off.

"It is a part of my duty to outline some of the evidence," said Attorney Lockhart, opening the case for the commonwealth. "Scott Jackson was at Greencastle, Ind., in 1895, where he met Pearl Bryan, youngest daughter of a respectable farmer. Pearl Bryan's father lived in Bourbon county, Ky."

Attorney Crawford objected to this statement.

"Pearl was an unsophisticated country girl; Jackson was an accomplished, much traveled gentleman. The girl became his victim. Then the accused man wrote her to come to Cincinnati. She came Jan. 28. Jackson did not meet her; but a witness who will testify, met her. She met Jackson the following morning, and he was seen frequently with her, not only in Cincinnati, but also in this state, up to Friday night."

"That night, the commonwealth expects to show, he was with her in a vehicle and that he drove with her to the spot where her headless body was found Saturday morning. He was found later with her satchel and clothing."

"We will show that Alonzo Walling knew Pearl Bryan. We will show that Jackson is the man who murdered that innocent girl," said Lockhart, pointing his finger at Scott Jackson. "The prisoner's face turned blood-red."

"We will show that he was a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde—in Greencastle a model, in Cincinnati associating with lewd women of both colors."

"We will prove that before the murder he exhibited a dissecting knife well suited for the awful use to which it was put."

John Hewling, the boy who discovered the headless body lying on the grass near the Alexandria pike, was the first witness called. He said that there was only about a pint of blood on the ground. This the defense will claim would tend to show that Pearl Bryan was not murdered at this place, but was brought there after the crime was committed.

Coroner Tingley was the next witness. He testified that he reached Fort Thomas at 10 o'clock on the Saturday morning of the discovery. The body was lying obliquely on a terrace. Two feet above the body was a large clot of blood. There was another, as large as a hand would cover, near the neck of the corpse. Blood was soaked into the clothing. There were spots of blood on the underside of privet bushes several feet from the corpse.

The coroner said that the woman's rubbers were soiled. The effect of this would be to show that Pearl Bryan walked to the scene of her murder, and was alive at Fort Thomas. The middle and third fingers of her left hand were deeply cut. There was a wound as if a stab in the trunk near where the head had been severed. These wounds were all recent.

"Was the head cut off at the place near Fort Thomas?"

"I think it was."

"Was it cut off before or after death?"

"The arteries were severed while the heart was still beating. The blood spots were on leaves two or three feet above the corpse. They were on the under side of the leaves. The blood could not have spurted in this way if the victim was dead when the head was severed. There was a large quantity of blood about the place, the wet ground probably absorbing much."

"The cuts on the hand were made before death and were perfectly fresh," the coroner said. "In cuts made on a dead body the tissues do not well up. The cuts were made by a sharp knife, such as a dissecting knife. The cuts indicated that the hand had been held to grasp a knife blade which had been drawn through it. The condition of the skin was somewhat drawn up around the wound. There was a bloody water seeping from the neck."

"What is the difference between a wound like that made after death and one before?" asked Attorney Lockhart. "If the head is cut off after death, the skin being dead, it will not afterward show a drawn appearance."

The doctor then went on to detail the result of the postmortem examination. He said that the body was found drained of blood. There was only one clot found. It was about as big as the tip of a man's forefinger, in the heart. If death had taken place before decapitation there would have been more or less coagulation, the doctor said. The doctor was present at both autopsies.

"Doctor, I will ask you," said Attorney Crawford, "if at either autopsy you found any evidence of a criminal operation?"

"Not with instruments," was the answer.

The cross-questioning then began. "At what angle lay the body?" asked Attorney Crawford.

"The neck was down hill."

"Do you think then," asked Crawford, "that the blood could have spurted up backward from the neck to the leaves of the privet bushes?"

"From the position of one of the clots found on the ground I judge that the neck might have lain in such a position at the time of decapitation that the blood could have spurted in that way."

Crawford insisted on a direct answer. "No, I think not," Tingley replied.

"Isn't it true that some time after death the blood remains in a liquid state?" asked the attorney.

"It remains so longer at some times than others. Asphyxiation would cause quicker coagulation than natural death. If the temperature should remain high in a body after death coagulation would be slower than if the temperature were low."

The witness thought the body had lain, when found, eight or 10 hours by the time he saw it between 8 and 9 a. m. Couldn't say exactly, only approximately. It could be probable that the body had lain where it was 10 or 12 hours.

"Could it not have been there 15 hours?"

"Possibly."

"Did you not tell Mr. L. D. Sampson shortly after the murder, in your office, that the head was cut off about five hours after death?"

"I did not. I had a conversation with Mr. Sampson about that time, but do not remember everything said at the time. But I could not have made such a statement because I constantly said otherwise."

This concluded the coroner's testimony and the court adjourned.

NOTHING FROM BULUWAYO.

The Place May Have Been Wiped Out of Existence by the Matabeles.

LONDON, April 22.—No direct communication has been had with Buluwayo for the past 24 hours and great alarm is felt here lest the entire town has been wiped out of existence by the Matabeles. The Daily Telegraph publishes a dispatch from Pretoria, which quotes a telegram sent from Buluwayo, on Monday saying that at noon a great battle at close quarters was imminent and that the enemy was visible at a distance of four miles entrenched behind stone mounds.

The dispatch from Pretoria continues: "The Johannesburg volunteers have telegraphed to Earl Grey, offering him a corps of 300 fully equipped men."

"President Kruger denies the report that any demand for an indemnity has been made upon the Chartered South African company by the Transvaal."

A dispatch from Mochudi Bechuanaland dated Monday which The Times publishes this morning, says that Earl Grey arrived there from Mafeking and continued on his journey to Buluwayo.

"Dr. Sauer, who is returning from Buluwayo for his trial at Pretoria," the dispatch goes on to say, "says that the danger at Buluwayo is certainly safe from external attacks, and that the food supply is sufficient for two months. He adds that the military operations will be purely defensive until the arrival of the relief column, and will be confined to keeping clear a zone three miles wide around the town."

"The first detachment of the relief column is already 150 miles north of Mafeking and their progress is satisfactory."

"The natives are beginning to realize the necessity of killing infected cattle to stamp out the rinderpest."

"In order to save the Bechuanaland protectorate and Rhodesia from danger of serious famine, it is imperative that the building of the new railway should be hastened."

The Berlin correspondent of The Standard declares that he has authority to state that the rumors of an agreement between President Kruger of the Transvaal and President Steyn of the Orange Free State, pointing to a coalition of the Boers throughout South Africa against England, is a canard.

CANADIAN FLOODS.

Thirty-Two Houses Swept Away by the St. Maurice and St. Lawrence Rivers.

THREE RIVERS, Que., April 22.—The flood here is doing an immense amount of damage. The water is now higher than the great flood of 1862 and 32 buildings in all have been swept away by the rushing waters of the St. Maurice and St. Lawrence.

All the wharves in the river front with the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation company's sheds and offices and the Canadian Pacific railway freight sheds are submerged. Hundreds of families are sheltered in public buildings.

Over a thousand logs owned by the St. Maurice Lumber company were carried away by the flood yesterday, together with Marsicotte's bridge, 600 feet long.

Clothing Cutters' Strike Declared Off.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The strike of the clothing cutters which has been in progress for the last three months, has been declared off. The employers won an unconditional victory. The garment workers union is expected to give in. About 15,000 men were out, clothing cutters and garment workers combined.

THE CIRCUS PARADE

It Was Very Important to Our Would-Be Lawmakers.

ALL LEGISLATION WAS DELAYED.

Recess Taken in the House to Allow the Members to See the Outside Show—After This a Few Bills Are Passed, One of Them a School Book Measure—Proceedings of Both Houses.

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—A very dignified and statesmanlike action was taken by the house in recessing long enough to permit the members to go out and witness the parade of Sells Brothers' circus.

Mr. Goodale introduced a bill (and secured its passage) authorizing the commissioners of Hamilton county to replace the bridge across the Little Miami river at Newtown, recently burned. The cost is limited to $120,000.

The following bills were then passed: Senate bill, adopting the Torrens system of land transfers.

Senate bill, re-enacting the law providing that boards of education shall not pay over 75 per cent of the wholesale list price for schoolbooks.

Senate bill, requiring that all actions for the pollution of streams shall be brought in the county where the pollution occurs.

Senate bill, providing that sheriffs shall not receive less than 45 nor more than 75 cents per day for boarding prisoners.

The senate passed the Garfield bill creating a state library commission. It may be safely said, however, that the bill will never become a law.

Mr. Beatty's house bill empowering the councils of municipalities to contract for electric lighting for a period of not more than 10 years was passed.

Mr. Clark's senate joint resolution ratifying the deed made by Governor Bishop to Cleveland of abandoned canal land now occupied by the Valley railroad, was adopted, as was Mr. Brorein's house joint resolution for the printing of 6,000 more railroad maps.

Bills were passed as follows:

House bill, providing that municipal authorities may contract with electric light companies for a period not exceeding 10 years, and authorizing the courts to correct certain contracts.

House bill, authorizing municipal authorities under certain conditions to grant street railroads franchises for 50 years.

Mr. Pleumer's bill amending the pure food laws so as to make two classifications of drugs, was defeated.

On motion of Mr. Shryock all his bills reorganizing the government of Zanesville were indefinitely postponed.

INDEPENDENCE OR DEATH.

An Address to the People of the United States From Cuban Revolutionists.

NEW YORK, April 22.—T. Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban revolutionary junta, last night gave out the following address to the people of the United States:

"To the People of the United States:

"The persistency with which the American press has during the last few days been treating of supposed administrative reforms to be introduced in Cuba by the government of Spain, compels me to request the publication of the following declarations, which I make in behalf of my government, of the army of liberation of Cuba, and of the Cuban revolutionary party."

"The question of the supposed reforms is not a matter which at all concerns those who have already established an independent government in Cuba and have resolved to shrink from no sacrifice of property or life, in order to emancipate the whole island from the Spanish yoke. If the Spaniards resident in the island, who are favored by the Spanish government with all sorts of privileges and monopolies, and if the handful of Cubans too pusillanimous or too proud to acknowledge their error, or a few foreigners guided only by selfish interests are satisfied that Cuba should remain under Spanish abomination, we who militate under the flag of the solitary star, we, who already constitute the republic of Cuba and belong to a free people with its own government and its own laws are firmly resolved to listen to no compromise and to treat with Spain only on the basis of absolute independence for Cuba."

"If Spain has power to exterminate us then let her convert the island into a vast cemetery; if she has not and wishes to terminate the war before the whole country is reduced to ashes, then let her adopt the only measure that will put an end to it and recognize our independence. Spain must know by this time that while there is a single living Cuban with dignity—and there are many thousands of them—there will not be peace in Cuba nor even hope of it."

"All good causes must finally triumph and ours is a good cause. It is the cause of justice treated with contempt, of right suppressed by force, and of the dignity of a people offended to the last degree."

"We have thrown ourselves into the struggle advisedly and deliberately; we knew what we would have to face and we decided unflinchingly to persevere until we should emancipate ourselves from the Spanish government. And we know that we are able to do it, as we know that we are able to govern ourselves. Experience has taught us that as a people we have nothing to envy the Spaniards; in fact, we feel ourselves superior to them, and from them we can expect no improvement, no better education.

"With regard to the knowledge of modern institutions and to democratic sentiments we are far more advanced than the Spaniards. In that respect and in many others we have nothing in common with the Spanish people. We are Americans; we breathe the pure air of free institutions and we contemplate with envy the government of the people, by the people and for the people."

Ministry Not Changed.

MADRID, April 22.—The rumors of the granting of reforms for Cuba by the Spanish government are much discussed by all sections of the political world here. The supporters of the government declare that the ministry has not changed its line of conduct, but that it will submit its proposals to the chambers.

DEATH OF A PHILANTHROPIST.

Baron Hirsch Passes Away at His Home in Presburg, Hungary.

VIENNA, April 22.—Baron Maurice de Hirsch, the great financier and philanthropist, died Monday night on his estate at Presburg, Hungary, from a stroke of apoplexy.

Baron de Hirsch was one of the six wealthiest men of the world. He became known by reason of his efforts in behalf of poor Hebrews. He colonized them in Argentina, and subscribed millions for their relief in Russia. His philanthropies were not limited to people of his own race. His purse was open to relieve the distress of any nationality.

Baron Maurice de Hirsch, whose full name was Maurice de Hirsch de Gereth, was born in Munich 63 years ago. His father was a merchant in Bavaria. Young Hirsch went into business at the age of 17, associating himself with the European banking house of Bischoffsheim & Goldsmidt. He married Mlle. Bischoffsheim, daughter of the head of the banking house with which he was associated. He was the first to plan the system of railways leading from Budapest in Hungary to Varna, on the Black sea.

No man who has acquired such vast riches has ever used them to better purposes. His charities in Austria and Germany are innumerable and his scheme for transplanting his unfortunate Russia co-religionists to South America cost what an ordinary person would consider a colossal fortune.

In Egypt and Europe and Asiatic Turkey many schools, educational and industrial, were founded and maintained by the baron. For instruction in Galicia he gave $2,000,000. To Russia he made the magnificent offer of $10,000,000 for public instruction, with this sole proviso—that no distinction should be made in the application of the funds as to race or religion. The Russian government declined.

OHIO PROHIBITIONISTS.

Opening Session of the State Convention Now in Session at Findlay.

FINDLAY, O., April 22.—The opening session of the Prohibition state convention was held here yesterday afternoon. The attendance of delegates is smaller than was anticipated and there is some disappointment in consequence. The convention was called to order by L. E. Logan of Alliance, chairman of the state executive committee, and an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor D. T. Winders of Findlay.

R. S. Thompson of Springfield was chosen as temporary chairman, and delivered the keynote of the campaign. He declared for a broad gauge platform and against the adoption of the single idea of prohibition. He denounced corruption in politics and monopolies, and announced his opposition to the Ohio Anti-saloon league and its methods.

The speech was loudly applauded.

At the close of the chairman's address committees were appointed, after which the convention adjourned for the day.

TESLA'S LATEST INVENTION.

A Person Enabled to Actually See the Human Heart.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Nikola Tesla, the electrician and inventor in a communication to the electrical review, of New York, announces two interesting results he has achieved.

One of these is that of a sensitive film be placed between two plates, say of magnesium and copper, a true Roentgen radiograph would be obtained after a very long exposure in the dark.

Another wonderful result Tesla has obtained is that by the use of a new type of fluorescent screen, devised in his laboratory, he has been able to greatly increase the sharpness of the outlines in a shadow on the screen, and to actually see the human heart.

STORM THROUGH OHIO

Extent of the Damage Done by Monday's Tornado.

SEVERAL PEOPLE WERE KILLED.

The Greatest Damage Was Done in the Vicinity of Fremont—A Schoolhouse Demolished While School Was in Session. Fatality in Stark County—Reports From Other Places.

FREMONT, O., April 22.—Full particulars of Monday's cyclone have just been secured after a careful tour of the entire district traversed by the storm.

The fine farm residence and all buildings on the farm of George H. Waggoner were razed to the ground. Here it was, while shearing sheep in the barn, that John Lowe met his death. George Waggoner and his 16-year-old son were pinned between the timbers and only liberated after hard work. Their injuries while serious are not fatal. In the house were Waggoner's wife and two daughters. They were thrown several rods and badly injured.

Amos Hetrick was struck by a flying timber and his left leg crushed.

The sawmill, owned by Daniel Hensel, is a complete wreck.

Mrs. Joseph L. Green, who was fatally injured, will die.

During the windstorm Mrs. William Sherf and children were driving in a buggy. The outfit was wrecked and they were hurled against a tree and seriously injured.

The steamer Colonel Bartlett was coming up the river and when struck by the gale nearly capsized and shipped a large amount of water. On board were two government inspectors besides the crew, and they had a narrow escape from drowning.

Part of the gale struck the Blue Banks just as a botanizing class were starting home in a covered carriage. The wagon was wrecked, and the students thrown in all directions. It is believed that some of those injured can not survive.

Onward the cloudbank rushed, tearing orchards and barns from its path and tossing them far out of the way.

At Buckton, Engler's saloon, Mrs. Buck's residence and a number of barns were wrecked.

At Kingsway the roof of the depot was blown off.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEMOLISHED.

The Teacher and Several of Her Pupils Injured Near Fostoria.

FOSTORIA, O., April 22.—The cyclone Monday afternoon destroyed hundreds of gas and oil derricks and a large amount of other property. The roof of the Hatfield brick schoolhouse, three miles northwest of the city, was blown off and the gable ends fell in, while school was in session, breaking the arm of the teacher, Miss Belle Norris, a daughter of Representative Norris. She was quite badly hurt by being struck by a rafter. John and Louis Heccathorn, Rob Smith and Ross Hatfield were also hurt.

Several children were injured, one little boy named Hatfield being carried several hundred feet by the wind and badly bruised.

Calvin Robinett was in one of the derricks when it was blown down and was buried in the wreckage. He was dug out and brought to town. His injuries are very severe and it is feared he will die.

IN STARK COUNTY.

One Lady Perished in the Storm and Another Injured by Falling Hail.

ALLIANCE, O., April 22.—Mrs. Edward Miller, wife of a well known farmer residing north of this city, saw the big storm approaching Monday night and started to the pasture field after cattle. She failed to return and after the storm members of the family started in search. Her dead body was found lying in the field half covered with water. It is supposed she became so badly frightened that it brought on an attack of heart disease.

Miss Lorena Smith, student in Mount Union college, here, was struck on the head with hailstones in the storm Monday night and rendered unconscious for three hours. She is now ill from concussion of the brain.

Coate's rake shop in this city was unroofed, and numberless trees, telegraph posts, etc., were blown down. The hail that accompanied the storm was terrific.

Fruit Injured.

TOLEDO, April 22.—Great destruction was done by Monday evening's rain and hailstorm. The rainfall, from weather bureau reports, averaged one inch. The fruit growers along the bay shore and the lake islands will suffer a heavy loss by reason of the hail utterly ruining a large portion of the fruit crop. The hail cut the blossoms from the trees and in some cases whole fruit farms were uprooted. No disasters are reported on the lakes, although the wind reached a high velocity.

Spared a Horror.

TIFFIN, O., April 22.—This city felt part of the force of the cyclone, but the cloud lifted like the trunk of a mastodon and this place was spared a horror. It struck the Sandusky river, lashing the water into foam and beyond leveled several barns and destroyed some orchards. At Republic, Attica and Chicago Junction the storm was felt, but there was not much damage done.

TUESDAY evening about 7:30 o'clock, Mr. J. F. Parker, the photographer, and his wife and son were out driving. They were coming east on West Third and when near the bend on the Lexington pike the horse became frightened at some object and ran in on the pavement and fell. At the same time a gentleman from the country was going west horseback, and in trying to get out of the way was forced on the pavement also. One of hind legs of his horse caught in the wheel of Mr. Parker's buggy, preventing it from upsetting and possibly saving the lives of Mr. Parker and family. As the latter's horse gained its feet it dashed down the hill, leaving harness and all behind. The animal was stopped at Coughlin Bro.'s stable. The countryman's horse had one leg badly injured, and Mr. Parker's buggy and harness was somewhat damaged.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

Orangeburg.

A memorial service was held by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian Church at this place on Sunday eve last, to the memory of Rev. W. S. Smith, the late pastor, who died at Dover a few days since. Rev. Smithers was a man greatly beloved by his people, and the tidings of his sudden death cast a gloom over his congregation here. The service, though brief, was very impressive, rendered all the more so by the deep and heartfelt sorrow which seemed to pervade every prayer and song. A short address was made by Miss Ida Mayhugh, which is given below:

TO THE MEMORY OF REV. W. S. SMITH.

It is with sad hearts that we come together this evening to hold a short service to the memory of our beloved pastor, who has so suddenly been called from our midst, never to return. Just one short month ago he was with us; we felt the kindly pressure of his hand; we heard his voice in cheerful greeting, and raised in words of prayer and praise to his Maker. To-day he lies silent and cold in a distant grave, and again we stand face to face with the great mystery we call "death." We, as a Christian people, are left to mourn a loss which words must fail to express. No more earnest, God-fearing man, or faithful, zealous worker has ever sought and found a place in the Kingdom of Christ here on earth than our Brother Smith. For "he was a man, the like of which we may not find again." A man who sought to heal the hurts and unite the divisions among his people, and who longed in his soul to see them at peace one with another. A man, plain and unassuming in manner, but always the courteous, Christian gentleman, making no distinction between rich and poor, high and low, and bestowing the same kindly courtesy upon the poor blind woman who sought our aid, as upon the distinguished young orator who came among us a few weeks later. A man young in years, but whose life was filled with good deeds, and whose vigorous frame and strong intellect gave promise of a future filled with usefulness and honor. His death has left a vacancy that we feel cannot be filled, but we must say "Thy will be done," for God has called him home, and while we are left to mourn his loss we are yet bound to rejoice in the assurance that he was not only ready to meet his Maker, but did so with his presence "empty hand." For the promise reads that "he who saves one soul from death must hide a multitude of sins," and we know that through his earnest teaching of God's holy word our brother has won many souls to Christ. It is in such an hour as this that man most needs the faith that will enable him to believe and hold fast to the precious promises spoken ages since by the sacred lips of the Savior of a world, for though

"There's a land, 'mid the sars we're told,
Where they know not the sorrows of time,
Where the pure waters wander through valleys of gold,
And life is a treasure sublime,
'Tis the land of our God, 'tis the home of the soul.

Where the way-weary traveler reaches his goal,
On the evergreen mountains of life."

We know not where lies that home of the soul, we can not see beyond the dark confines of an earthly grave. We know not where our brother is to-day. But so surely as the words "He has risen" brought joy and gladness to the waiting Disciples near eighteen centuries ago, just so surely must we know that the spirit of our brother dwells somewhere in the glory of the Savior's presence, for He has called him home.

Then, shall we stand with bated breath,
And whisper "he is thine, O death!"
Ah no, for far beyond the chill and gloom,
He passed into a land of song and bloom,
And there awaits to welcome home
The loved ones who must surely come.

HANGED HIMSELF.

Rev. James A. Caywood Found Dead at the County Infirmary Early This Morning.

Rev. James A. Caywood committed suicide some time last night at the county infirmary by hanging himself with a strap. He was taken to the infirmary only yesterday. This morning about 4 o'clock, Superintendent Slattery found him dead, hanging on the porch of one of the buildings.

Deceased was formerly a member of the Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, and in later years was one of the conference's colporteurs.

About two weeks ago he was tried in the County Court on a writ of lunacy but talked so rationally that the jury adjudged him of sound mind.

He had been seized with the hallucination, however, that in order to save his soul, he must hang himself.

Tuesday his relatives went before Judge Hutchins and secured an order committing him to the infirmary. Last evening he spent some time reading the Bible to several of the inmates, and talked as rationally as any one.

Later he tried to borrow a knife but this was refused him. Superintendent Slattery kept a watch on him part of the night, but about 3 o'clock this morning he got out of his room and was found dead an hour or so later.

A check rein had been used by the unfortunate man in taking his life. He had evidently had this concealed about his person, as Mr. Slattery missed nothing of the kind.

Caywood was about sixty years of age. He married a Miss Leachman, of Sardis, some years ago, but they were afterwards divorced, and he then married some woman in Central Kentucky, by whom he has four children.

His relatives, who live between Mayslick and Sardis, were notified of his death this morning. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Coroner Roe held an inquest, the verdict of the jury being that deceased came to his death by his own hand.

Deceased was seventy-four years of age, and was a sister of Dr. Waugh with whom she and her husband had been making their home of late. Her husband survives and she leaves four children.—Mrs. Graham Lee, of this county, Mrs. A. H. Willett, of Fayette, Mrs. J. J. Willett, Missouri, and Miss Bessie White.

THE man with a weight on his leg can't hope to win in the race. A man with a weight on his health can't expect to compete in life and business with those who are not handicapped. If his brain is heavy, and his blood sluggish, because of constipation, he will not succeed in doing anything very well. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all sickness. Symptoms of it are sallowness, listlessness, poor appetite, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, biliousness and lassitude. Constipation can be cured easily and certainly by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are not at all violent in their action, and yet they are more certain than many medicines which are so strong that they put the system all out of order. The great advantage of the "Pleasant Pellets" is that they cure permanently.

SUNSTROKE CAUSED HER DEATH.

While With a Happy Party of Pleasure Seekers Miss Nettie Stone Was Suddenly Stricken.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the sudden summons that came to Miss Nettie Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Stone of Mt. Gilead. The Lexington Leader says: "Sad, indeed, was the death of Miss Nettie Stone, who accompanied Mr. Miller's excursion to Pilot Knob Saturday. She was a niece of Mrs. George Lancaster and lived at Mt. Gilead, Mason County, and was on a visit to her aunt and cousins. She seemed in perfect health and excellent spirits when the party left, and no one dreamed of the dark shadow which lurked by her side, or the gay laughter would have been hushed as it was upon the return trip. Miss Elmer Allen and Miss Julia Reese, two of the party, remained with the stricken girl and were with her when the grim destroyer set his seal upon her brow at midnight, Saturday. Arriving here Monday morning at 7 o'clock, the loved remains were taken to her darkened home."

There were about forty in the party, and while they were climbing Pilot Knob at 3 o'clock in the afternoon Miss Stone complained of feeling ill and suddenly sank unconscious. She had been overcome by the heat. In an unconscious condition, she lingered until midnight Saturday night when the final summons came and death claimed her.

The remains were laid to rest Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Mt. Gilead. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Deceased was twenty years of age, and was an accomplished and estimable young lady. Her many friends learn with sorrow of her sad death.

Badly Injured.

Mr. Will Fristoe, a son of Mr. W. H. Fristoe, was driving his father's cart down Union street Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock when the horse took fright, and lunged forward, throwing the young man violently to the ground, the cart wheel passing over his breast. His father fortunately was near and picked him up, but he lay unconscious for some time and bled from the mouth. Dr. Samuels was summoned but could not tell just how badly he was hurt. He is getting along as well as could be expected. His injuries are internal and are very painful. After the accident the horse ran down Second street to Daulton's, striking a tree, breaking the shafts of the cart into splinters.

Thousands have tested the great building-up power of Hood's Sarsaparilla and have found renewed strength, vigor and vitality in its use.

Dr. G. C. Osgood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

CONGRESSMAN COBB UNSEATED.

Fifth Alabama District Contested Election Case Settled by the House.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The house yesterday unseated James E. Cobb, Democrat, representing the Fifth Alabama district, and voted 121 to 45 to seat Albert T. Goodwin, Populist, but the point of no quorum being made the house adjourned with the final vote still pending. Five Republicans voted with the Democrats to recommit the case with instructions to the committee to permit the contestant to offer testimony in rebuttal.

Mr. Cobb had 508 majority on the face of the returns, but the majority found extensive frauds in the three counties of the district, which reduced Mr. Cobb's vote and gave the contestant 2,360 majority. The minority claimed that no opportunity was given to submit evidence in rebuttal and that fraud was presumed, not proved.

Mr. Cobb has been a member of the Fifty-first, Fifty-second and Fifty-third congresses. He was unseated by the Fifty-first house.

An effort was made to fix Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week for debate on the bankruptcy bill, but it was unsuccessful.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The senate spent the day on the Indian appropriation bill, but did not complete it. The sectarian school question was taken up late in the day and brought out an animated debate, Senators Gallinger, Teller and Thurston opposing, and Senators Gray and Pettigrew supporting the amendment offered by Mr. Cockrell, extending for two years the time for the entire abandonment of sectarian Indian schools. Final action on the question was not reached. Most of the day was given to the contest against legal claims in connection with the western Cherokee settlement, and the claims were finally agreed to.

BAY STATE DEMOCRATS.

They Recommend William E. Russell to the Chicago Convention.

BOSTON, April 22.—The Democratic state convention to elect delegates-at-large to the Chicago convention was held at Music Hall yesterday.

The platform congratulates President Cleveland, opposes the free coinage of silver, favors an elastic banking currency, asks that the legal tender notes issued in time of war be withdrawn, thanks John G. Carlisle for the way he has handled the finances of the country, sympathizes with Cuba, scores the Republican party for coquetting with the A. P. A. and recommends to the consideration of the Chicago convention the name of William E. Russell.

Gold Standard in Texas.

DALLAS, April 22.—Five hundred representative gold standard men from almost every county in Texas met here yesterday in convention, and by a vote of 10 to 1 resolved to reorganize the Democratic party in Texas and make the fight in the state and in every congressional district and county in the state. Delegates will be elected to a state convention to meet at Austin on June 23, and if they are not seated by the free silver or Dudley wing, a contesting delegation will be sent to the national convention at Chicago.

King Menelik Changes His Mind.

ELECTION IN KENTUCKY.

Two State Senators Elected, One a Democrat and the Other a Republican.

LOUISVILLE, April 22.—Elections were held yesterday to fill the vacancies in the state senate caused by the expulsion of Dr. C. J. Walton of Hart county and Dr. James G. Greenhill, Republicans, at the last session of the legislature. These gentlemen were renominated by the Republicans of their districts.

Specials indicate that Hon. W. J. Bale, Democrat, was elected over Walton by about 350 votes. Bale is a free silver man and had considerable Populist support.

Dr. James, whose only opponent was R. T. Pender, Populist, is returned by about 800 majority.

Double Murder.

SHENANDOAH, Ia., April 22.—Mrs. Mary Johnson was found dead yesterday and her brother E. A. Jagger is dying in their residence. A revolver with which the shooting had apparently been done, lay on the floor. It is believed by some that Jagger killed his sister and himself. He was a local merchant and no reason is assigned for the deed. Officers are working on a double murder theory.

Tragedy Over Politics.

TANGIPAHOA, La., April 22.—A deplorable tragedy occurred here yesterday. Mr. A. H. Goss, Populist-Republican candidate for coroner of this parish, was shot and instantly killed and S. S. Hyde, a Democrat and highly respected man, was mortally wounded. The trouble between the men grew out of politics.

Italy Will Pay the Bill.

ROME, April 22.—The Marquis di Rudini, the prime minister, has ordered the Italian consul general in New York to hold an inquiry regarding the landing of Italian pauper immigrants at Ellis island. The immigrants who are not permitted to land will be brought back at the expense of the Italian government.

PARIS, April 22.—Leon Say, the distinguished political economist, died here yesterday. His remains will be interred in the cemetery of Pere la Chaise. The funeral will be simple, in accordance with the wishes of the deceased. There will be no speeches or flowers. President Faure has sent his condolence to the widow.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malaria poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
